

A9C Capital joins the Middle East Renewable Energy Forum (MEREF)

A9C Capital proud to serve alongside some of the world's most reputable companies in promoting Renewable Energy across countries of the Middle East

MANAMA, BAHRAIN, DECEMBER 19, 2009:

A9C Capital today joined the Middle East Renewable Energy Forum (MEREF) as a corporate participant, strengthening the forum's network business consultancy and technology advisory for renewable energy applications. Established in 2009 by the sponsors Latham & Watkins, bp solar, bp hydrogenpower and Conergy, MEREF has already succeeded in attracting a range of high-profile local and global institutions involved in various areas of the renewable energy field. The activities of the forum range from supporting local governments in their efforts to implement efficient renewable energy frameworks to promoting investments in related technology and companies.

Background and contact

Middle East Renewable Energy Forum (MEREF)

MEREF is a non-profit organization of leading local and international institutions with the mission of establishing a leading forum for companies and government entities focused on renewable and low carbon energy in the Middle East in four key areas: CCS, solar, wind, and biomass. The initiative supports governments in the region with developing policies and regulatory frameworks that support renewable and low carbon energy activities. Please see www.meref.net.
